

Military authorities say a decision will be made next week on whether Gallagher should be released from the brig pending trial. He has been jailed since his arrest on Sept. 11. # He is scheduled to go on trial between Feb. 19 and March 1. # # 1:15 p.m. # A military court has set the time frame for the trial of a decorated Navy SEAL on murder and other charges involving the fatal stabbing of a teenage Islamic State prisoner in Iraq in 2017 and the shooting of unarmed Iraqi civilians. # The judge said at a hearing Friday that Special Operations Chief Edward Gallagher will go on trial between Feb. 19 and March 1. # Gallagher has agreed to trial before a military jury that will be one-third enlisted personnel. # The hearing is also taking up the issue of whether Gallagher can be released from custody. His defense has called two SEALs who say he has an outstanding reputation. # # 8:44 p.m. # A decorated Navy SEAL is facing charges of premeditated murder and other offenses in connection with the fatal stabbing of a teenage Islamic State prisoner under his care in Iraq in 2017 and the shooting of unarmed Iraqi civilians. # Special Operations Chief Edward Gallagher is also accused of