Fellow pop stars Taylor Swift and JoJo Siwa tied for second with two votes.? Other student favorites were Ed Sheeran, Michael Jackson and Beethoven. # Artist and scientist Leonardo da Vinci is one of the people this class of third-graders admires. (iStock) # Favorite game, sport or hobby: Soccer netted the most votes, with seven. But gymnastics also had a good showing, with five votes. Football and game site Roblox received two each. # Person, living or dead, you? admire most: Family ruled in this category. Grandmother was first with three votes. Parents and grandfather were right behind with two. Famous favorites included Rosa Parks, Helen Keller and Leonardo da Vinci. # Favorite website or app: Video-playing YouTube earned six votes and first place. Roblox was second with four votes. Minecraft, Google and Netflix each received two votes to land in third place. # If you could go on a trip anywhere, where would you go? These students mostly want to? visit somewhere warm. Hawaii was first with four votes, followed by Mexico with three. Other destinations were Costa Rica, Florida and Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. # Favorite birthday food: Would it be a birthday without cake? Not according to these kids. Cake was the clear winner, with nine votes. Pizza was a distant second with three. In third place: ice cream. # Do you like to hear from friends by text, photo, video or postcard? There was no runaway in this category, but video messages were the favorite with eight votes. Texts were a close second with seven. Postcards got five votes, and photos got four. # Do